MEASURING UP

California must accept the opportunity of living up to the state's best tradition.

That tradition is to fill the War Chest. It will take $20,000,000 to fill the quota this year and there remains less than a month to raise this money as the drive closes November 11.

The War Chest is an important enterprise—one of the most important of all wartime activities, in fact.

It supplies the vital needs of 22 official and indispensable war relief agencies in addition to the equally valuable and necessary home front relief organizations.

Before the War Chest program was conceived, most of these essential agencies were more or less "on their own hook" as far as money from the public was concerned. Each put on its own campaign according to its needs and the time best suited to its convenience, with the result that there was scarcely a day throughout the year when the people of California were not being asked to dig down for some cause or other... all worthy, of course, but inevitably wearing thin the nerves and patience of the people.

Now the people of California find it possible to take care of this entire important matter with one dig. Naturally it has to be a substantial dig, made with real awareness of the purpose of the campaign.

This year, for instance, as War Chest officials have pointed out, the public should be aware of the fact that recent Japanese military success in China has made necessary an additional appropriation of one million dollars for United China Relief.

Moreover, the prolonged and disastrous robot bombings in England have made necessary an additional appropriation of a third of a million dollars for British War Relief.

California must bear its share of these additional expenditures, if it expects and desires to be counted in with the rest of the American people in full performance of our obvious national obligation.

The final thing for all of us to keep in mind is that several million young Americans, including a lot of California boys, are putting their lives on the line for the winning of this war, and the rest of us are lucky in being called upon only for our dollars.

NOW AT DALY CITY THEATRE

Irene Dunne, star of M-G-M's "The White Cliffs of Dover," meets Alan Marshal at a dance on her first visit to England. In no time, she falls in love with him and marries him. This scene shows their first meeting and what follows from this point on makes for one of the most compelling pictures of the year. "The White Cliffs of Dover" opens tonight at the Daly City theatre.

DRUID'S WHIST

Mrs. Winifred Evans will be in charge of the final whist party of her six months' term as arch druidess, of Hillcrest Circle No. 143, U. A. O. D., Monday evening, October 23, at Masonic hall, 17 Hillcrest drive. She cordially invites the public to attend and promises a pleasant evening for all who come. She is being assisted in party arrangements by her two supporters, Mrs. Hazel Keagle and Mrs. Eleanor Wilson.

Playing begins at 8:30 p. m.

Before the public card party, members of the circle will hold a 7 p. m. business meeting at Masonic hall. Officers for the new term are to be elected. All members are urged to be present for this important meeting, according to Mrs. Evans.

LADIES AID WHIST

Members of the Catholic Ladies Aid Society, Branch 59, announce that they will give their annual Christmas whist at St. Michael's parish hall, 32 Broad street, Tuesday evening, October 24. The public is invited to attend and playing begins at 8:30 p. m.

Mrs. Louise Buckholz is in charge of party arrangements and she assures those attending of a pleasant evening.

Proceeds from the whist will be used for the Christmas funds of the society.

There's an oar here for!

It's a lifesaving job, all right! And the lifeboat must be manned by us civilians on the home front.

There are lives of refugee Chinese and Greek children to be saved. There are lives of our own servicemen's children here at home to be sustained and cared for.

There are comfort and cheer to be given to war prisoners.

There is entertainment to be provided for our fighting men abroad through the U.S.O. Camp Shows.

All these need many more at home and abroad to be covered by your one gear to your local Community Fund.

PAPER SAVING

When salvage paper is collected, to avoid fire hazard, the Department of Agriculture recommends that it be stocked neatly and tied in bundles. Paper boxes should be flattened, then tied in tight bundles. A metal trunk or bin with a tight cover is the safest place to store paper. Next best is to stack paper bundles on a cement floor away from furnace, stove or hot pipes. Soiled or oily paper is useless for salvage and is also a fire hazard and should be destroyed.

PROVOCATIVE

A WOMAN'S HAT is a halo—something spiritually new, 'tis said. So CBS singer Dale ("Jack Carson Show") Evans created an individualistic dinner charmer to fill her particular requirements. It is simply a black ostrich feather attached to a wire clamp bound with ribbon the color of her hair. The graceful swirl, curling like a frame over half of her blonde head, is offset by one earring and a matching gold necklace. Choose your most flattering color to spice a monotone costume.

DOUBLE THE CARE

DOUBLE THE WEAR

Tips From Local Office Of O. P. A.

(Editor's note: this column is prepared for The Record's readers by the local OPA board and is printed by this newspaper for the convenience of both the public and the board)

Ceiling prices on durable goods—There are dollars and cents ceiling prices set on almost all durable goods both new and used. Durable goods include refrigerators, stoves, washing machines, vacuum cleaners, etc. and the ceiling prices apply whether the goods are sold by a merchant or an individual. A recent case was brought before the local board in which an individual had sold a used refrigerator for $130, the ceiling price for which was $10.50.

The purchaser could have sued for $358.50, or if he did not care to sue, the OPA Administrator would have. Because of the fact that the defendant pleaded ignorance of the law, the hearing panel recommended that the difference between the price paid and the ceiling price be refunded to the purchaser. The point we wish to make is that ignorance of the law is no excuse for infractions. Before you sell, or buy, any such articles, whether from an individual or a dealer, check with your local board for ceiling prices. It only takes a few minutes by telephone and can save you a lot of embarrassment and oftentimes a considerable sum of money.

Butter supply—As far as supply is concerned, the United States civilians will get 80 out of every 100 pounds of butter manufactured this year. Fifteen pounds of every hundred pounds will be sent to the Russian army chiefly for use in hospitals. The average civilian share this year will be slightly less than 12 pounds per person, as compared with 16.7 pounds for the years between 1935 and 1939, all of which means that civilian supplies, the remainder of this year, will be as tight as they were during the same period in 1943.

Red Cross Salvage Shop Asks Donations

"If it's salable, we want it," might well be the slogan of the Red Cross Salvage Shop, 532 Sutter street, which is seeking donations to replenish its dwindling stocks and to assure the Red Cross Motor Corps of continued financial support from its sales, Mrs. C. A. Warren, chairman, announced today.

Diversity is the keynote of the salvage shop, where bric-a-brac, clothes, hats, costume jewelry, books, pictures, lamps, dishes and hundreds of other articles are on sale at prices based on their ages and conditions.

Pointing out that a gift tie which Father may find too loud may be just what a salvage shop customer is looking for, Mrs. Warren urged San Franciscans to go through their homes and wardrobes collecting for the salvage shop any items which they are not using but which others might like to have. Persons with donations are asked to call the shop, GARfield 5250.

ANNUAL SALON

The annual salon of the Bay Area Council of Camera clubs is being held at the San Francisco Museum of Art from October 11 to 22. All prize winners in this eighth salon are black and white prints, but examples of color photography are also exhibited.

MEAT IS ESSENTIAL

7 GOOD REASONS FOR Meat on the Table

1. Meat for Complete Proteins.
2. Meat for B Vitamins.
3. Meat for Iron and Copper—build good, red blood.
4. Meat for Phosphorus—a dietary essential.
5. Meat for Easy Digestibility.
6. Meat for Palatability.
7. Meat for "Satiety Value"—that lasting satisfaction after the meal.

The meat rationing system was worked out to insure each family's getting a fair share of the civilian meat supply. Your government recognized the fact that meat is necessary for the health of every person in the country.

Don't neglect this important food in meal planning, simply because it may not be convenient to purchase. Spend your red points wisely, for sensible cuts of good meats. Let FARMERS' quality be your guide.
